Exhibitor Registration Terms

Booth Registration, Payment, and Confirmation. The exhibitor must submit the completed Exhibition Form, together with proof of payment, to sales@discoveriesconference.com. Submission of the completed form constitutes the exhibitor's express acceptance of all policies and conditions contained in this document. The booth will be confirmed upon receipt of the required payment. If payment is not received by the agreed date, MMC Discoveries will notify the exhibitor in writing and hold the selected booth for five calendar days; after that period, the booth may be released.

Tax Invoice (CFDI) and Mexican Taxes. Under Articles 1, 3, and 16 of the Mexican Value Added Tax Law, all exhibitor fees are subject to IVA at the applicable rate, regardless of the exhibitor's country of residence or private or governmental status. MMC Discoveries, S. de R.L. de C.V. will collect and remit the applicable IVA. Any exemption, refund, or special tax treatment requires authorization under Mexican law and official documentation submitted before payment. CFDIs will be issued under Articles 29 and 29-A of the Mexican Federal Tax Code. For a CFDI issued in the exhibitor's name, send the required billing information and proof of payment to sales@discoveriesconference.com.

Exhibitor Cancellations. Cancellation requests must be submitted in writing to sales@discoveriesconference.com. Only cancellations received more than 30 calendar days before the conference begins will be eligible for a refund:

- Within the first 7 calendar days after payment: 100% refund.
- After the first 7 calendar days: 50% refund.

Any booth purchased or canceled during the 30 calendar days before the conference begins will be non-refundable from the time of payment. The 7-day refund period will not apply in these cases.

These terms apply except where applicable law requires otherwise.

Force Majeure. If extraordinary, unforeseeable, and unavoidable circumstances beyond the reasonable control of MMC Discoveries, S. de R.L. de C.V. prevent or materially disrupt the conference—including natural disasters, public health emergencies, government orders, civil unrest, or serious security threats—the conference may be postponed and rescheduled.

The conference will not be relocated; it will be postponed and rescheduled at the venue originally selected, provided the venue remains legally and physically available. The new date will be scheduled within twelve months following the original conference date.

One hundred percent (100%) of all booth payments will be automatically transferred to the rescheduled date. No cash refunds will be issued. If an exhibitor is unable to attend on the new date, the full amount may be applied to the following edition or the participation may be transferred to another company, subject to prior written approval from MMC Discoveries.

If the conference cannot be held within twelve months following the original date, the full amount paid will remain available as a credit for the next edition of Discoveries Mining Conference.

MMC Discoveries will notify exhibitors as soon as reasonably practicable and will not be responsible for travel, accommodation, transportation, loss of business, or other indirect expenses incurred by the exhibitor.
